In this book, I summarize the deaths of my father in 2000 and my brother in 2004, both ruled suicides, and explain why I believe both cases deserve another look. I share eyewitness details, inconsistencies in police reports, possible scene tampering, missing evidence, and contradictions in witness statements

I describe the shock, trauma, and years of isolation I experienced while trying to have both cases reinvestigated. I summarize my father's prayer-like position, the lack of submersion, the water being drained before responders arrived, and errors in dictation. I also recount my brother's death, including contradictions between witness accounts and the official conclusions. Throughout the manuscript, I include spiritual insight, biblical references, and personal reflections on grief, manipulation, and family dysfunction.

This manuscript is my testimony. It documents what I saw, what I learned later, and why I believe both cases deserve to be reinvestigated.

The Seven Major Mistakes in Suicide Investigation

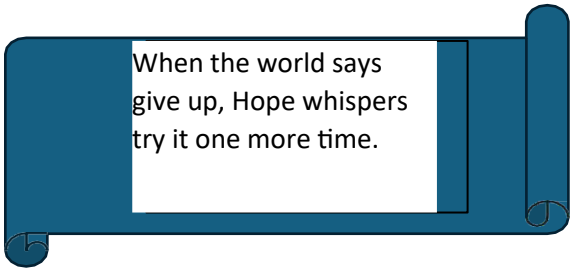
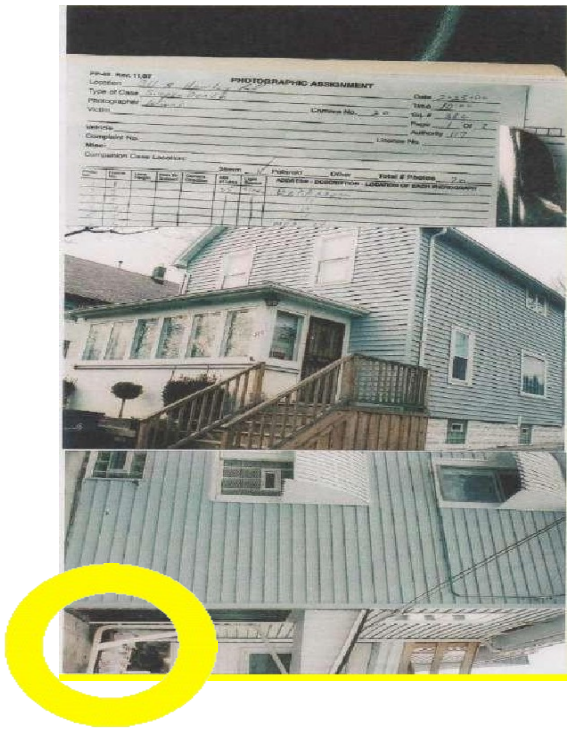
Ecclesiastes
A time to keep silent, and a time to speak.



AMOR POR VIDA



Empty Jugs

Years of isolation and the avoidance of support affected my mental health, leaving me emotionally wounded, exhausted, and numb.

I am completely shut down to the present.

I sought answers that only God granted me; He revealed the truth.

Due to the protocol 911 presuming suicide, they did not investigate it as a crime.

Investigators automatically tend to treat the initial call by assuming the death was based on suicide.

They rushed through their perception, disregarding critical procedures and evidence.

In the field of criminal justice, investigations are expected to be conducted without bias. It is considered a mistake to rely solely on the initial report, such as the one from 2000. Investigations typically begin as a response to a crime scene upon entering the premises following a death.

I wish the suspects were interrogated rather than dismissed by only statements, an injustice to the victims. The search of the premises was botched.

The individual involved in this incident secured and locked the room following the death, thereby restricting access, under the assumption that the cause of death was suicide, she could walk free.

I believe if it were reinvestigated properly, DNA could have been discovered. I moved into the same second-floor bedroom, where I found a mop stick in the closet, and months later, I saw a mop head outside the window on the sunroof.

In hindsight, I should have bagged it as evidence. My point is that these items could have been discovered if not for the presumption of intentional suicide.

My father's cane was near the toilet due to his need for balance, and being extremely ill the prior evening, it was in the wrong place.

I kissed him good night. He wore a white T-shirt that evening; his shirt was blue today.

I later provided more details to those who managed the investigation. I was still denied justice to amend these reports.

This wrongful protocol, knowing he was dead, his body being removed from the drained bathtub, therefore altering the initial scene, can be considered an act of tampering.

My perception was off in a state of shock, trauma-stricken, having just discovered my dad dead. My statement affected the outcome of the investigation report.

A petition of signatures supporting similar beliefs, later foreshadowed by divine inspiration, that something was off with the investigation. It was a staged scene; I had experienced the most traumatic event in my life, which is forever engraved in my mind.

The water being drained disturbed the initial scene; his corpse was left inside a waterless bathtub with no attempt at CPR. I only learned the truth four years later, in my brother's death, leaving me in shock.

He served time in prison, never called it quits; his past was used against him. Prior years of using cocaine did not kill him; why now?

I retrieved the police reports and noticed suspicious errors in the dictation requiring corrections. I am fixed on further review, determined to have both cases reopened with newfound evidence and a confession. Flashbacks reflecting on these memories clarified my mind.

If my father desired to take his life, he would have remained in his lower area on his bed, not going through all the work; it was more than a one-man job.

My father seldom went upstairs; he was not a bath guy. On favorable days, the primary reasons for going upstairs included seeking privacy, managing occasional instances of constipation, and attending to shaving. His living quarters were set up in the lower area to avoid the stairs.

Let me clarify I was shocked; my thoughts were scattered. If the rescue team saw him with his folded prayer hands and tranquil position, never submerged underwater, I am an eyewitness.

The term submerged as quoted in the report is not part of my vocabulary; at no point did I refer to him as being underwater. The report states that there were no bubbles in the water and describes the body as blue, gray, and lifeless. Clarification regarding the timing is needed. The Black Widow was already obstructing access to the phone and contacted 911 after requesting drainage. I was only made aware of her actions when reviewing the police reports four years later.

This memoir recounts deaths, seeking truth, not harm.
Years of slander, blame, and projections endured.
New confessions surfaced, instincts confirmed, justice sought.
My testimony documents inconsistencies, omissions, and irregularities.
Gaslighting, manipulation, and staged events demand accountability.

Case Summary – Felipe & José Berrios

Felipe Berrios died February 23, 2000, in Milwaukee.
The scene appeared staged; the case was closed.

José Berrios died on September 4, 2004, in a garage. No mental health history: witness evidence contradicts.
Pattern mirrors father's death, financial benefit suspected.

Timeline & Investigative Errors
February 23, 2000: Felipe was found deceased, with inconsistencies.
September 4, 2004: José found a ruling of suicide.
Family not notified; witness statements contradict police.
The protocol presumed suicide; no crime investigation was conducted.
Scene altered, water drained, no CPR attempted.

Personal Reflection & Advocacy
Shock clouded perception; the statement affected the investigation outcome.
Petition supported belief; divine inspiration strengthened resolve.
Most traumatic moments, engraved in memory forever.
Brother's past used against him; never gave up.
Determined to reopen cases and pursue further review.

Request reinvestigation; death was ruled a suicide prematurely.
Critical factors overlooked; evidence suggests misclassification.
Family not interviewed, no suicidal ideation or attempts.
Friend's account contradicts police, resilience demonstrated.
Psychological autopsy interviews are beneficial, but suspects remain free.

The circumstances suggested manipulation, yet authorities closed the case rapidly without conducting a thorough forensic analysis.
The family was not informed promptly, and there was no documented history of mental health issues. Eyewitness accounts directly challenged the official conclusion of suicide.
Those responsible for psychological manipulation and orchestrating events that contributed to these tragic deaths must face justice and accountability.

As a diversion, the protocol was designed to destroy the initial scene. If I could revise my statement with my current knowledge, without a doubt, the outcome would have been different.
In 2004, following my brother's death, I reviewed the police reports with a clear mind. I noticed errors; my years of trying to prove were washed away.
It is best to refrain from speaking under these circumstances until your perception is clear.
Legislators need to pass a law stating that 911 audio calls related to suicide investigations should remain public records and never be deleted.
The police investigation cannot be undone despite my best efforts, as it was a cold case; I am the only witness, having no defense or support from an estranged, dysfunctional family.
I innocently suffered a life sentence of grief with repressed emotions, unsure what my sons were exposed to before me, knowing they are impacted for a lifetime with these deaths

The suspected parties that staged the scene stated that I was the cause of my father's death, two against one, pinning the death on me. While all along, they caused my father's demise in their plot.
Unfortunately, it is easier to get away with murder than to arrest in cases like these. This is our justice system.
My efforts were in vain. I was never validated, and my notes were never reviewed.
My dad wrote me a letter in his 80's, stating his desire for a more fulfilling life with grandkids, hoping to see them as adults.
A man writing a letter for a longer life is a clue that he would not have attempted to take his life. I find it hard to believe he would do it in a household when my children were present.
Nelson's Plumbing restored the necessary pipes to increase the water pressure. He replaced the faucets and the wall in the year 2003- enclosed a receipt of $800.

The water issues made showering problematic. It is difficult to process my Pop's drowning.

The police investigation photograph depicts empty milk jugs served as a water source
Before my father passed, he received a check as a down payment for a property I was considering.
However, this amount was instead applied to my brother and his wife's home purchase.
Following Poppie's death, I stayed with my mother and children in the household. My sons do not remember their childhood because of the trauma they have been through.
My Eyewitness Account
I want to make this clear: I was in shock, and my thoughts were scattered, but I remember what I saw. When I found my father, his hands were folded in a prayer-like position, and he appeared tranquil. At no point was he submerged underwater. I am an eyewitness to this.
The term “submerged”—as quoted in the police report—was never part of my vocabulary. I never used that word, nor did I ever describe him as being underwater. The report also states that there were no bubbles in the water and describes his body as blue, gray, and lifeless. These details raise significant questions about the timing and accuracy of the documented scene.

What I did not know at the time—but learned four years later when reviewing the police reports—was that the Black Widow had already obstructed access to the phone and contacted 911 only after requesting that the water be drained. This action altered the original scene before emergency responders arrived, and I was not informed of it until years later.

In a psychological autopsy, identifying aspects of a person's life that explain any lingering mystery of their death, I believe that having associates and close contacts interviewed is a beneficial idea for the victims.
Instead of being open or closed solely based on suicide or statements, often cases are murder, and the suspects are still free.
When I saw my father, I immediately suspected foul play. Although the police reported it as a suicide, I was shocked, and regretfully, I went along with the flow in my statement.
If my father desired to take his life, he would have remained in his lower area on his bed, not going through all the work; it was more than a one-man job.
My father seldom went upstairs; he was not a bath guy. On favorable days, the primary reasons for going upstairs included seeking privacy, managing occasional instances of constipation, and attending to shaving. His living quarters were set up in the lower area to avoid the stairs.

The death of my family members was a material gain.
Inconspicuously, her former relationships with our family were never restored. In 1980, the Black Widow's strong obsession with my brother began. She overstayed her welcome and now vanishes, never looking back after both deaths.

Her wishes were fulfilled by entrapment. Her letters were written to my brother, signed using our family surname. She wanted him to father her babies despite his marriage status. My nephews have never met the father's side of the family. Praying for the time that will come for a reunion.
May 13, 2022, Mother's Confession: Regards to police report coffee request, it never occurred. She later changed her phone number, as I attempted to follow up about Poppie. It has been two years since contact, as this matter is important.
Her lack of cooperation stalled my case resolution and hindered my healing process.
The Lord will finish the conclusion; she may regret quoting her part, for fear of prison, although hell is more tormenting.
We all must answer to God.
The police investigation’s report in 2000 is not based on the truth; it should be voided. His coffee request is invalid because my father was not alive. The time does not add up.
I was residing with my parents while pending a divorce from an abusive ex. On my first attempt at bathing in that property, the Black Widow instructed me to boil water in large buckets to fill the tub.
It was pending repair, as it was eventually completed in 2003, after my father's death.

She dated my brother and occasionally stayed at the same residence, making clear we all knew of the water issues on the property.
Thanksgiving 2022, Mom claims to have placed a pillow over his face to suffocate, proceeds to drag his near-death body up to the second floor, and meets her accomplice, who states to finish him off by drowning in the bathtub, which is a staged scene.

The Black Widow oversaw that day, removing my children, tampering with the initial scene, destroying evidence by requesting my mother to drain this water.
She is an accomplice to this awful memory; an image engraved in my mind forever. A never-ending void of missing my two favorite men in the hands of selfish, greedy, and diabolical people.

(pacemaker), and it was the reason she called her. Ms. MCCLINTOCK stated when Susan arrived at the house, they decided to have her take Ms. GRALEWICZ'S two boys, Anthony and David, to Susan's residence.

Ms. MCCLINTOCK stated Susan told her, David had told Susan, at approximately 7:00 a.m., he saw his Grandfather, Felipe coming up the stairs, and he followed his Grandfather, but his Grandfather told him to go back downstairs. This concluded Ms. MCCLINTOCK'S statement.

It should be noted, David BERRIOS, H/M, DOB: 04/18/91, was not present at the residence, and was not interviewed regarding this incident.

I pray, as the Bible quotes, Vengeance belongs to the Lord; let justice prevail. Shocked by the years of being gaslit by people you felt you had a sense of relationship with, instead, there is deception, false allegations, and slander, pointing fingers at the innocent.
The mind games were a cover-up; I perceived an extended period; their hands were dirty with innocent blood.
In 2007, my petition to reopen the cases declined due to a conflict of interest. As the sole witness with spiritual insight and recollection but without support, I faced significant challenges in demonstrating that the crime had been orchestrated and subsequently concealed.
The issue of racial profiling and discrimination is evident, as both families occupied distinct positions within society.

The Black Widow’s family participates in the Law. We were treated as lower-class Puerto Ricans; both cases were dismissed more quickly than if we had been white or if the circumstances had involved The Black Widow's death.
It is now 2024, and my desire is for a reinvestigation of both these deaths.
My brother had a regretful sexual fling, which led to fatal attraction, then to his death.
She never desired to share his children with our family, nor a new woman, and refused divorce.
How can you not attempt to resuscitate or to cut the rope around your husband’s neck?

My half-sister Tati, the second-oldest daughter of Felipe Berrios, provided clear audio testimony affirming that our father did not kill himself. Her statement aligns with my own eyewitness account and supports the long-standing concerns I have raised regarding the inconsistencies in the original police investigation. Tati's testimony is an essential piece of evidence, demonstrating that multiple immediate family members—independent of one another—recognized that the official conclusion did not match our father's character, habits, physical limitations, or the circumstances of the scene.

Her wishes were fulfilled by entrapment. Her letters were written to my brother, signed using our family surname. She wanted him to father her babies despite his marriage status. My nephews have never met the father's side of the family. Praying that the time will come for a reunion.

May 13, 2022, Mother's Confession: She later changed her phone number, as I attempted to follow up about Poppie. It has been two years since contact, as this matter is important.

My mother died on December 13, 2025, and because of her past deception, dementia, and the fact that this appeared to be more than a one-person act, I may never know the full truth. She may have helped cover it up, but those answers are now buried with her.

The Black Widow oversaw that day, removing my children, tampering with the initial scene, destroying evidence by requesting my mother to drain this water.

She is an accomplice to this awful memory; an image engraved in my mind forever. A never-ending void of missing my two favorite men in the hands of selfish, greedy, and diabolical people.

I pray, as the Bible quotes, Vengeance belongs to the Lord; let justice prevail. Shocked by the years of being gaslit by people you felt you had a sense of relationship with, instead, there is deception, false allegations, and slander, pointing fingers at the innocent.

The mind games were a cover-up; I perceived an extended period; their hands were dirty with innocent blood.

In 2007, my petition to reopen the cases declined due to a conflict of interest. As the sole witness with spiritual insight and recollection but without support, I faced significant challenges in demonstrating that the crime had been orchestrated and subsequently concealed.

The issue of racial profiling and discrimination is evident, as both families occupied distinct positions within society.
The Black Widow's family participates in the Law. We were treated as lower-class Puerto Ricans; both cases were dismissed more quickly than if we had been white, or if the circumstances had involved The Black Widow's death.

It is now 2024, and my desire is for a reinvestigation of both these deaths. My brother had a regretful sexual fling, which led to fatal attraction, then to his death.

She never desired to share his children with our family, nor a new woman, and refused divorce.

How can you not attempt to resuscitate or to cut the rope around your husband’s neck?
My father and brother were not consistently depressed or suicidal. Research indicates that most suicidal thoughts or behaviors are not acted upon and often pass, especially with timely intervention.
Despite being aware of relevant information, she did not intervene and allegedly left ropes in the garage. I assert these events were staged.

If there had been no interference in my father's death investigation, the body would have remained as originally found, but her actions did not follow protocol.

Tati's Audio Testimony

My half-sister Tati, the second-oldest daughter of Felipe Berrios, provided clear audio testimony confirming that our father did not kill himself. Her statement aligns with my eyewitness account and supports the long-standing concerns I have raised about inconsistencies in the original police investigation. Tati's testimony is essential evidence showing that multiple immediate family members—acting independently—recognized that the official conclusion did not align with our father's character, habits, physical limitations, or the scene's circumstances.

My father's death should be reinvestigated; tampering with the initial scene would be unlawful. I believe the suspects should be charged or jailed. His heart pacemaker could have determined his actual time of death.
Those who intentionally take part in a homicide should be held accountable. Unapologetic if they get a life sentence. I am standing by the Truth.
On September 4th, 2004, Jose was found dead by suspected suicide in their garage in Milwaukee, WI.
She left his body untouched for investigation, as required by protocol.
She immediately called 911 for my brother's case, but the Black Widow delayed calling for my father despite identical protocols.
My father's initial discovery should have been preserved, just as it was in my brother's investigation.
He was hanging flat-footed for hours as described.
(Protocol: no effort CPR because he was found dead, as was my father).
Why the overhead garage versus the side door entrance? Her dream was to find him in the garage, intoxicated, working on the car.

She is creating a distraction, being an accomplished actor who looked for her husband after saying he came home drunk at 1 am.
My brother sent optimistic letters and smiling photos from prison during his sentence. Why in Freedom Call it quits?
He expressed his HATE in a letter regarding the Black Widow requested.
I told her to stop interfering in his marriage. She continues harassing him throughout his prison sentence by gossiping and causing conflict in his marriage. She began stalking him when he was released.
She was infatuated with him, and she decided to defame his first wife on false allegations.
During his death investigation, they did not see any past mental health crises.
A claim by his wife in the police report quotes him as being depressed over finances. Then, suddenly, there is wealth after his death; she purchased a property valued at 342,000.00 and never returned to Milwaukee.
I believe police can make major mistakes in reporting suicides.

I experienced it firsthand.
The image of my father's lifeless position will always have an impact on my mind.

I will present the police reports and photos of this incident. My reasonable suspicions are as follows.
February 23rd, 2000, at 8:00 am, I discovered my father inside the bathtub of the residence, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
The Black Widow's statement claims that at 6:38 am was the last time she was in the restroom. At that time, Jose was present at work. The statement made by her sister constitutes hearsay. The timing needs clarification. My son did not see his grandpa at 7:00 am. In the report, he was not present to give a statement, having been removed from the property.
When entering the bathroom, my father was inside the bathtub wearing boxers and a blue T-shirt, as the night before had been a white shirt. I recall I kissed him goodnight as he wanted to speak. His heavy cough prevented conversing. I gave him a glass of water and told him we would talk in the morning; unfortunately, the moment never came.

Awkwardly, his hands were folded in prayer upon my discovery. The claim was suicide by intentional drowning; Therefore, the investigation was immediately closed.
I never imagined this surreal image; I presumed natural reflexes protect the body, putting it into energy-saving mode, resisting

The rescue team was unable to visualize the image I had in mind: his hands clasped in a gesture of prayer, exuding tranquility.
This led me to suspect foul play. I was in a state of Shock, Trauma-Stricken, and I could not voice it.
The primary suspects, along with circumstantial evidence to support this claim.
This lady has known our family since the 1980's. In her teen years, she had an obsession leading to her fatal attraction to my brother.
She interfered in all his relationships; She stalked and harassed him while he served his prison sentence.
She appeared distant, as if she had planned this scheme; she often expressed a desire for his demise.
I decided to follow up on the fact that she was in both homes when these deaths occurred, making me suspicious.
She had time to make calls, including long-distance, but did not inform us; Even the police did not notify our family of the loss of my brother.
Associates were at our door, giving condolences

In disbelief, I drove over to their home. I saw her smoking a cigarette. Her demeanor appeared unemotional; she did not express empathy, stating, "Yeah, he is dead. You will never see him again."
During the years of our acquaintance, she was one of the biggest manipulators, always the victim, faulting others, and not accountable for her wrongdoings.
With this type of behavior, she knew how to work the system.
Her leverage regarding my brother was his past criminal record; nearing his death, complaints increased as he feared returning to jail on her false, exaggerated allegations, with police involvement in all their altercations.

The devil will be confined to the lake of fire, as well as his followers.

Revelation 20:10

I was speaking to Jesus' wisdom and guidance; He alone provided the missing links. I was consumed in despair, numb, unable to speak; as none gave an ear; Instead, they kept me silent for years. I was beaten but not defeated.

Years of being frozen in time with a life sentence of grief.

Family is priceless.

I did this without wages; I am not seeking vengeance, which belongs to the Lord Jesus.

I just wanted to be heard. Thank God for the revelation by the author of TRUTH, my all-knowing Father in Heaven, provided.

His work is being done through me without fear; I must conduct the task unapologetically.

I will endure moving forward, baby steps at a time, no longer stuck in the past; those in heaven would desire me to be present today, not broken, happy to live guilt-free.

26 years affected my well-being, mind, body, and soul; a broken spirit, outside of God, I must bear it alone. As a single mom, I had to mask a normal life so as not to rub off my deep depression.

These deaths tore our family apart. The years of isolation, outcast by blood relatives and friends, my presuming loyalty until experienced when most needed, unavailable.

Jesus has always been by my side as my shield. I overcame dark thoughts with His help. Through homework, prayers, and God's divine intervention, I succeeded.

Hopefully, I will have a listening ear to one who lived it. I dedicated time to this due to the value of (2) men who do not have a voice to express the injustices that caused their deaths.

Detectives earn their income by investigating crimes. I need the comprehension of a non-biased, thoroughly reviewed investigation. I created this book to make sense with added evidence.

Please do not turn it down yet again.

Accept that policing can have errors that need amending; regardless of titles or positions, humans are not flawless.

Do not let pride prevent me from seeking clarification

It is now the Lord's work for the outcome.

What happened to her admission? She went to the second floor with his near-lifeless body, the Black Widow waiting, quotes to finish him off; otherwise, he would speak, then proceed with the staged drowning.

She is an equally guilty accomplice. There are still unknown mysteries to be discovered.

Heartbreaking, it must have been to my father, least expecting to die in his household. His wife and an acquaintance were allowed into his life as they violated his trust and kindness.

Just thinking about it causes me frustration. He never expected the pillow over his face; he was a weak, elderly, sick man; his wife unexpectedly made this sudden move- pure evil.

She protected the Black Widow, having a newborn, but cared less about what my two sons were exposed to.

Discovering him dead stunted my future and affected my mental and physical health.

On the day of my divorce from my abusive ex, I endured two traumas.

I was never validated or supported by this core grief; I was shunned, no one to listen, pointing fingers, placing blame on me, with slander. It is hurtful that the deception of these flying monkeys with narcissistic traits, up to this day, my mother, the manipulator, never desired my happiness, and preferred I live in misery.

I expressed my emotions on a computer screen for years with binders full of proof of my entire life. I can prove it by paperwork and recorded events. Since it was all projected onto me, my defense is based on facts. I did not even have to open my mouth if anyone cared reviewing.

I could not live freely. I was being watched and falsely judged. As a single mom, I had to continue alone without loyalty.

"Who can you trust when your blood relatives continue to cause you more harm than good?"

Living years of harassment, threatened by siblings, mom, plus outsiders, who never knew me by association, engaged in one-sided assumptions. I was put in magazine ads and on sexually explicit websites without consent. My children reported to Child Welfare another false allegation.

When a family friend molested me, nothing was done about it, as more incidents were swept under the rug.

My children are equally loved - I would die for them. God redeemed us; we are forever bonded in the shield of Grace, as those lying about mistreatment attempted to destroy my character.

These nonstop hurricanes, blizzards, and storms all arrived in the same season.

During a difficult period, my family failed to support my son's upbringing. My children's uncle has been mentally abusive and prevents them from speaking with their grandmother. He controls her care, motivated by profit, especially since her stroke led to mild dementia. While I previously cared for my mother without compensation and with good intentions, family divisions persist, negatively affecting my children.

They prefer division, serving evil versus God, as they remain in darkness. That evil energy was intended to hurt my children.

Note: He was never submerged; when responders arrived, the bathtub was empty due to scene tampering. With no water present, the initial protocol led the authorities to presume suicide.

Draining the water before 911 arrives is highly deceptive. No one else saw my vision.

After 26 years, a mother provided misleading information on video regarding topics I considered important, for which I was seeking answers.

Instead, it is easy for others to continue life, letting go as if my father had no value.

I discovered my father, and I was never validated or granted a second chance.
The home wrecker entrapped my brother with pregnancy before he was even divorced, her obsession with having children as letters enclosed proved. Black Widow Syndrome.

I believe that if he had remained single would be alive.

The two Berrios deaths are presumed suicides. I am in despair.
I got insight from God, Pop / Jose did not commit suicide.
A measure of closure, despite 25 years of unsuccessful attempts to reinvestigate, knowing them both my entire life.

I declare it foul play: secret now exposed.

My binders of work, if reviewed page by page, show reasonable suspicion of a staged scene.
Unfortunately, my estranged dysfunctional family is against me, making it harder to prove without support. Instead, they claim that I caused his death.
The wrongful slander will catch up to them at their appointed time.

The eye of the Lord was my witness; as vengeance belongs to God, He shall fight this battle, as I sit and watch.
Recently, I have encountered significant adversities; however, I remain confident, as I believe that with the support of God, there is nothing to fear. As 2023 approaches and I turn 52, I prefer to focus ahead rather than dwell on the past.
Instead, for once, I want to move forward, even if done alone; I know God is always available 24/7 in my daily presence.
I am forgiving the foes, not permitting this year to be taken from me by those who desire me harm, regardless of the time it takes for healing.

I vow to finally live freely.
This is my side of the story: the years of evidence, police reports, graphic photos, and witness statements.
God alone granted me the vision of this painful closure. I was relieved at the same time, knowing intuitively all along. It took time to get resolved. This evil will be exposed to the universe to know; I was innocent all along.

Their domestic issues should not have led to the stage scene's ending. When I attempted follow-up questions, she stated I was causing her harassment.

I told my mom to repent after sharing her part. She later chose to change her number and cease contact, as this subject is considered significant. There will always be unsolved pieces to this puzzle due to the lack of further investigations and the suspects' denials.
My memory is frozen in this surreal discovery of his image, folded prayer hands, and the fact that he avoided bathing my entire life.
He could have remained in his lower living quarters if he had desired to end his life.

My theory:
Diversion Tactic blames others to take focus off them, as both have projected death as my fault.
I am sentenced to a life of grief by the actions these unemotional, masked, detached evil criminals created.

GOD WILL FINISH THE CONCLUSION.

On February 23rd, 2000, the day of my divorce, I was suddenly traumatized by discovering my father was dead in the bathtub; it was instead a staged suicide.
As eyewitnesses, my children were removed from the home.
The Police never conducted follow-up questioning while it was fresh in their minds.
I had to stick around to assist with this sudden death investigation. I recall that when the police arrived in shock,
I did not have time to sort out my thoughts on these questions. I was only concentrating on my father; his vision astonished me.

A drowned victim in a prayer position, unlikely to drown, having a tranquil position in survival mode; you would expect resistance. The report mentions that a razor was present with a minor wound on his arm, presumed to have changed his mind, so why follow through with the act? DNA fingerprints could have been on that razor, botched by the presumption of suicide.

Despite the statement that he was deceased in the report, her diversion by removing him from the bathtub was part of the staging act; This immediate removal destroyed the initial scene.

The image of my discovering him was never witnessed.

Looking back, waiting on the second floor, and making the 911 call might have resulted in their arrest.

The 911 audio recording needs review, as the report dictates; she provided her contact information, as if it were mine.

I was still downstairs, unaware that she had told my mother to tamper with the water. The water did not go over my father's nostrils, if you can imagine his hands folded in prayer with water below his nostrils never submerged.

Eventually, water issues were repaired by Nelson's plumbing after his death.

In 2004, I decided to get the police reports, as my gut instincts were on point. The police records of my father are not all accurate. I attempted to revise errors; however, justice was denied in amending the dictation.

I seek justice, trying to get these deaths reopened, for two beloved men who have died in vain until my last breath.

Years of trying to prove it were washed away based on a conflict of interest.

I will not give up until someone is willing to listen to and view my evidence. The suspects walked free; They gained from the deaths of both my father and brother. A father of three children, to this day, she still prevents them from seeing the extended family.

He never abandoned those sons, as a stepdad to the former women in his life. He loved children. I am confident that his own three would have been a priority. He was the godfather of my oldest son.

He expressed a desire to teach him sports, boxing, and how to be an adult.

He was a provider and a diligent worker since his teens.

My suspicious intuition regarding reports led me to the DA's Homicide department. I was referred to a detective who was careless in following up. My dad’s investigation is suspicious due to the empty jugs.

Finding a clothed body in an empty bathtub warrants a thorough investigation rather than simply labeling it as suicide; a reinvestigation is necessary.

A DVD demonstration of property 311 shows how easy it would be to use the empty milk jugs to fill the tub.

The scenario was orchestrated; following the police interview, the suspect gathered her belongings and departed, having served as the mastermind for the day.

According to the report, my two sons were removed from the house by her sister, who, on Facebook, denied being in Milwaukee and claimed to be living out of state during the event.

I am affected by finding him deceased.

I faced the aftermath of his sudden death, waiting by Pop until he was pronounced dead before being placed in a body bag. I had to leave the environment. It felt like an omen in that foggy moment.

Quickly, the case was closed. I received the police reports and photos- this puzzle became clear. I am attempting to gain access to Audio 911; despite my efforts, the community leaders have never directed me.

It is concerning that both suspects showed no emotion in either death. Life appeared desolate, a nightmare I want to wake from.

Thanks be to God; He alone comforted my loss.

I am traumatized with no family or friends for support. I had to overcome this alone for my children; I was isolated as usual, and no one understood my emotions. I was mocked, called crazy; it was projected as if it were all in my mind.
I kept my composure with fake smiles so as not to rub off on my children.

My mother, with two sons, continues for a season.

The nightmare begins when she later remarries a toxic man, making matters worse. I was battling in every direction; I made progress but still faced significant setbacks. In my playground, you battle as a soldier in this never-ending chaos.

I did not have support; after discovering your father's death, it was quite a challenge to do it alone.

Surviving for the sake of my sons. I am 53 years old, and to be honest, those moments I experience, I would never choose to repeat or give to my worst enemy.

No one would desire to walk in my shoes. By God's Grace, I am working it out.

In retrospect, I would have overseen the situation differently by contacting emergency services and securing Poppies' body.

I have binders full of evidence; eventually, I will find a detective to review. I will not give up proving these cases, unlike others who continue their disgrace by burying the hatchet.

Human error occurs at all levels of society. I want the investigator to review the error and consider the mistakes in the police report.

As a student of criminal justice, I have learned that there is no statute of limitations for the crime of murder. Let justice prevail as these suspects are sent to prison.

Vengeance belongs to the Lord; I had no choice but to be a survivor living for the day of justice, setting me free from this frozen grief.

The suffering that death brings is an unexplained pain to the core, a void in the heart.

The individual is traumatized dealing with such a devastating loss, especially in the hands of another in a shared household. 25 years of working on it to be ignored can add to my distress.

Her character was emotionless to both of my losses.

I learned of her overwhelming obsession with my brother in my youth.

The Black Widow entrapped him by getting pregnant pending his divorce; more babies followed, and one home was not enough, so it had to be bigger. She always wanted children through entrapment; three were born.

She made police calls to further damage Jose's reputation, especially near his death. Although his previous prison sentence continued to influence how others perceived him, he made efforts to improve himself despite his past mistakes.

She got what she wanted, but all things are temporary and do not last forever.

With my brother out of the equation, she did not have to share her children with him or another woman, as she refused divorce.

She was aware of his background and chose him as the father of the children based on material gain.

She barely contributed financially, making it difficult for my overworked brother. He was a diligent worker providing for his family.
Her verbal abuse continued, belittling his masculinity; rather than being grateful, she was a controlling wife. I lost my brother twice; this time, forever.

Mom

Two years of no contact, not my will but yours.

The division serves Satan, not God. The betrayal and deception tore my heart to pieces; I was to be aborted. On earth, you still cut me into pieces. I would have preferred abortion rather than living with this estranged, dysfunctional family, passed down from generation to generation.

I never experienced normalcy, the uncalled hate from those expected to love me.

Having plans for my life, my Jesus interceded

I was born.

I acknowledge the situation and am moving forward. We could have ended in peace by the Grace of God. I am praying you repent before He calls you home. The sin of hate equals murder; you have blood on your hands, as does your accomplice.

Satan will welcome you unless you choose salvation. I forgive you, as my mom; you are forever treasured in my heart, regardless of the wrongful actions I innocently endured. I am not the judge; only God determines the outcome.

Let Justice prevail over this untimely demise of POP!
Neither his view nor my experience indicates suicidal intent.

During challenging periods, his behavior exhibits characteristics commonly associated with aging; however, he consistently reverts to his typical state, attaining a sense of peace.

The process of sorting out my thoughts and emotions stunted my growth.

Reunions in heaven, believing in God, we shall see each other again, my hope.

Justice shall be served to the unrighteous.

Revelation 14

He said it in a loud voice, Fear God and give him Glory, because the hour of his judgment has come.

Worship him who made heaven, the earth, the sea, the spring of water.

Thank God for the wisdom that was provided. His work is being done through me without fear; I must conduct this task.

I am moving forward, baby steps at a time, no longer stuck in the past.

My Savior granted Revelation to each detail.

With my Savior, Author of Truth and Justice, I can dance in the cemetery.

I no longer desire Validation; I know Truth. My reality without distortion.

Those buried are Alive,

in the Presence of our Father in Heaven.

UNRESOLVED is the testimony of a daughter who loved through betrayal, survived through silence, and rose through God. Alicia's journey carries the weight of truth, the ache of erasure, and the strength of forgiveness.

From the locked door to the confession, from the years of disappeaance to the final email conuncing her mother's death, this memoir reveals what it means to stand when everything tries to break you.

This is not a story of what was done to her — it is a story of what she survived, who she became, and the God who carried her through every chapter.

Alicia writes with clarity, faith, and unshakable honesty. Her voice is steady, her truth is sacred, and her victory is undeniable. Unresolved is a testament to endurance, motherhood, and divine strength.

My daughter Alicia

She likes to work which makes me a proud dad that she stays in that working mind frame. She has two sons which are the happiness of my life because I love them very much. I don't wish to die until I see them as adults. I'm 80 years old. I'd like to have more life. I do request of God to care for them daily and to have them grow up without drugs and HARD working that everybody cares for them as I do. I wait for the day to see them as grown adults. I think a lot about them each day having to pass or die in the future, as I desire to live for them.May God bless them and provide for their future.

Revelation and Inspiration are processes overseen by the Holy Spirit, involving supernatural divine experiences.

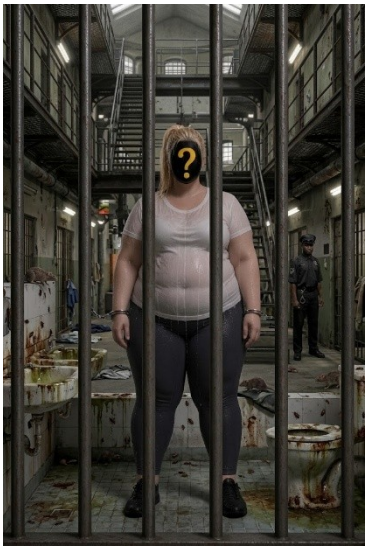
I am forgiven for forgiving my foes.

The battle is won.

I can find healing and strength as my losses are restored, and peace remains for the days ahead.

Waking up from this nightmare, all I was seeking.

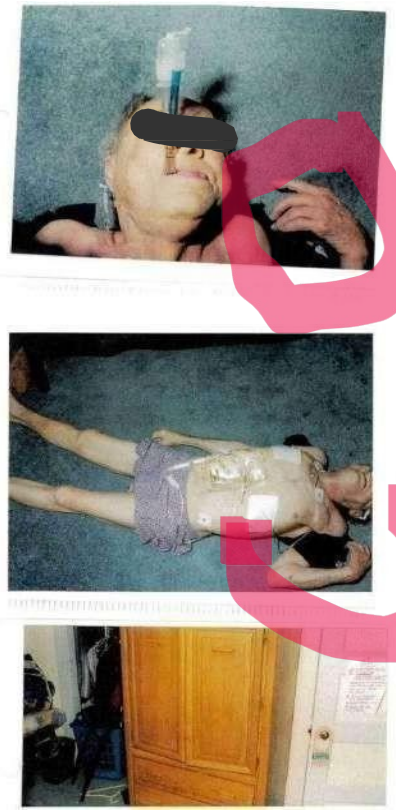
This Pain had a Purpose.



BLACK Widow wrote a letter.

Addressing my brother David, she is shifting blame to my mother, calling her a liar, and refusing to allow their grandkids to play a part in her life. She claimed innocence, though she was equally involved.

The police photo shows his arm raised, suggesting a defensive stance.



This letter reveals her plan for Jose to leave his wife.

So, they could live together at 311 once Poppie was gone.

Dear Jose or should I call you, my Rambo.

Remember the Rambo picture you sent me from prison? I still have it. Ya know Jose, Your mom has told me how you can't stand your wife and that you always call her a fuck-n bitch. Well get rid of her like we all want! Your mom said that she's gained tons of weight and she makes you so sick that you left her on two different times and spent the last time with some girl. You stayed at your mom's on a saturday and your mom called me and told me to come over but we were afraid that Popie would find out. Well, your mom has a plan to do Dave's old room up for you cuz she wants you to move home. I told her then I can come over but I'll have to stuff myself to be big and fat so you'll at first think its your wife, then when I take off the disguise, you'll have your dream come true, you fantasy, me! I still am waiting for that ride on your bike. Oh and by the way, I'm sorry I caught you off gaurd at your mom's yhay one day after work. I was suppose to already be in side your mom's house to surprise you. She called me and told me that you need to get away from you know who, I hate to say her name, so you come to your mom's to work on the car that's why you keep it there. Well any ways I was sad that you left but I know yopu had the bitch in the car, your mom told me what happened later that night. Also, I heard that you burned , slapped and through a beer at the bitch! I do see, you really hate her. Jose, I only wished you would have been with me that last Friday night I could have showed you such a good time. Remember when you gave me that shower. I know I told you that you didn't satisfy me, well we can work on that. I love to ressle with you. I heard that your mom went out of her way to make the bitch feel better about things, even took her upstairs to talk and she made a huge seen and you had to leave with her. What a bitch! I dream alot and tell your mom she says dreams do come true. I dream Jose of us having a little girl and dressing her up in Harley clothes. God I dream alot. Just like when I told that guy in the bar that I was your wife when I went out with Dave and all of them. I was happy that night. I heard Sue saw you and gave you a kiss and the bitch made a seen at Wood's house. What a shame for you Jose to have to live with that! The girls around here hate her cuz she thinks she's too good. It was nice not seeing her face around for those years. I love your mom and like I told Alicia, I'd do anything for her! She loves me too and told me that I'm more her daughter than Alicia or the bitch for sure. I try to do so much for your parents, I made curtains for your mom, she told me she showed them to you. I also cut poppies hair for him. You see Jose , we should be together like your mother wishes. You should listen to your mom like I tried to tell you at Oxford. She doesn't want to see you in misery. She told me Hulia called and you even told her your not happy. What's up Jose? I know your wondering why I even took the chance to send this to the Bitch's house but your mom told me you work at some friends place at night so I knew you'd get the mail during the day. Your mom wanted me to go down to your work to suprise you but couldn't remember where it was. She also told me about JT not liking the bitch for anything! Boy for him to [illegible] told you in a letter before, she fucks her own cousin, Fernando saw her at George Webbs on Bluemound. Well, maybe she's jealous like your mom says cuz you do so much for your mom and your mom does get away with alot, she told me how you sort of made her apologize to the bitch and your mom said she didn't really have to thats the love you have for her as your mother. Thats really nice Jose and I'm glad you do things for your mom, fuck her! So really tell me the truth rumor has it your leaving her when you get your full time position at the cemetary, not till then? When is that summer time? Oh Jose, come stay by me. Jose, I have to be honest with you, I know girls in the strip scen and , well I told them your mine and anyways we share something! I heard something from a girl way over on the south side, I can't remember the place right now, but its huge, by the airport, she told me she knew a Jose that she wouldn't dare fuck but wouldn't tell me exactly why but that you had it out also with too many people she knew. Whats that about? Well, like I said-talk is had about you and one more thing, you fucked alot of people in the bars and I wonder if the story is true, did you really fuck Sue? Well, my Friend, my Love, I hold dear the poems you wrote me and await for that ride on your bike that you promised me and remember, I wait for you. Maybe when poppie is gone I will help your mom, she asked me and then you, her, and I can live together and maybe Felix cuz something was mentioned to that.Also, remember our night on the town, you were singing that night and you remember what happened the rest of the night! We will do it again. Call the next time from your mom's when your over night, or she said she'll call me. Your beautiful Jose! For now thats all I will say...

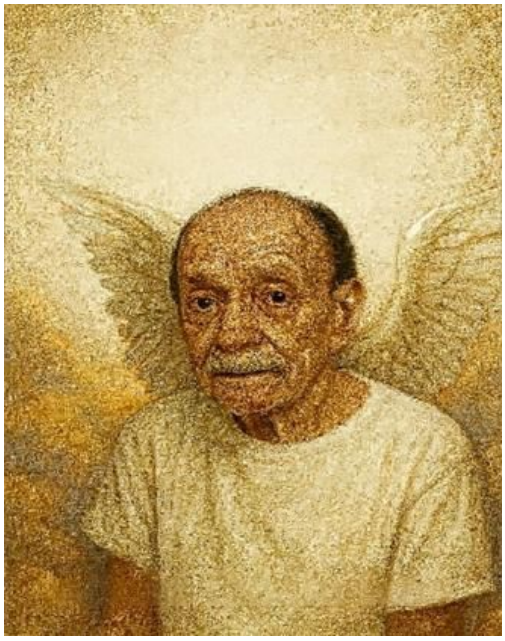
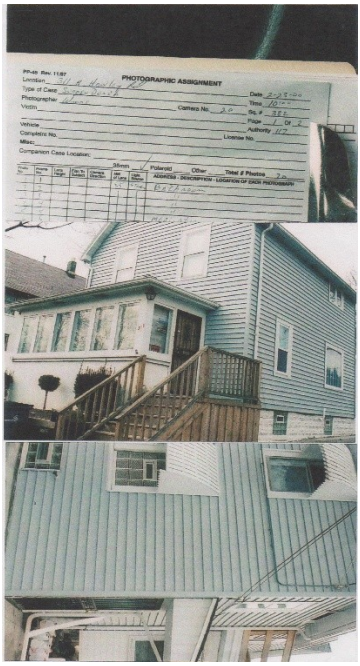
Cindy

"Berries" "





David, I'm ok. Camille was here and told me you sent a letter. I hope that you can understand how I feel about your trying to tell me that there was any kind of relationship any more. Felix did come around once and a while. When I first started dating Jose' Felix didn't stay close. I'm sure that it wasn't the most perfect relationship, he wasn't beating or cheating me and he was home every night. Then he did get to be a prick ... for the last 11/2 years. I couldn't take any more either. He wasn't going to beat me-he was going to kill me. And I waited night after night for him to \ And begged him to just leave me if I wasn't making him happy.) I was told that he had cheated on me. Because I was a nagging.bitch) You don't understand that a father needs to be there with his kids ... Jose' knew that and hated me for it. I asked him to come home. I asked him not to bring his "stuff" in or around our house. I didn't want to loose him to drugs. I just love him and I have to tell Julian every day that his Poppy is in Heaven. Every night he wants his Pop. Max was the one that Jose had been really cruel to and he's the one that does everything so his Pop can see from Heaven and be really proud of him. How can you feel my pain? Your brother gave me life and love and he was our everything. He let the jealousy and drugs take over and then the vultures really had a feast on him. So many friends? I am only glad he talked to me about many of the things that he had realized about friends and that he told me that he really did love me-enough to die for. How can you understand that I am in my heart so glad that I was able to give him the love he could truely believe. When I have bad times, I think that maybe he lied about his boys and me and he'd still be here. Then something he said or did will come back and I see the smiles in our pictures or Joseph will tell me something that his Pop said to him and I can and do go on. I could have done something more. Jose' would still be gone. He did plan this. I'm not sure how long). There were times he told me that he would never let me go. He was going to tattoo my face and then no one would even talk to me! What a freak? I will never be touched like that. He was the best friend I've ever had. He was there for me on everything for 4 years. I hate him for leaving his boys. I do believe that in his love he had given me the best of himself and that is the love that his boys will have. He didn't want them to grow into punks. He gave me the strength to give him those boys and told me how to raise them ... he never lost that part of reality and told the boys that they had a damn good mother and they should always listen to me because I was smart and they'd grow up to be real men. There was so much pain in watching us because he never got over growing up abused :(How the Alicia thing made him hate even more :([redacted] let the vultures in to party and I'm still left holding the bag and the disrespect that his boys have been thrown with the empty promises. There is nothing left but for us to go on. We aren't begging anyone. I'm not calling anyone anymore. If it's so hard to hear Jose's voice then why want to see him in his boys? I have all I can do just to take care of a regular day. I am busy and I don't need to add any more chaos to our lives. We are just trying to build our lives a new future with positive and substantial influences. (Your mom stabbed me in the back when Jose' was first slipping. And then again after he died. I forgive her. She will not treat Jose's boys like that. I don't trust that she wouldn't say something stupid and then say how sorry she is ... that is how your mom is and I can't believe that she did do what she's done to me so that how she did Jose' is just enough to really show how she is. (They don't know their Grandma doesn't tell the truth and they don't need to grow up with lies and manipulation)I'm sorry to say it like that -it is the truth of what she's done to me. I hope she's well, but don't want to see her because.I am angry that she turned her back on Jose' then tried to play his mind because Alicia said so? Can you feel my hurt? Do you feel his touch? Do you hear him ? Do you smell him ? My memories of Jose' are all I have left of him for three boys One year later I have given them those memories to hold in their hearts and grow. They go to sleep to see their Pop and play with him in Heaven.

Hi Alicea 11/10/96

I hope all is well, I'm writing cause I need a favor a big one. I received another disgusting letter from Cindy, this time she went to far. Alicea put her in check for me please, your all I have left, your the only one on my side. This is what you tell her, stop writing my brother that shit. If you write him again I swear I'll kick your ass, he's my brother and I respect him and you should too, In the first place its none of you business. What ever is between David and Jose, it has nothing to do with you. So leave my brother alone or deal with me.

You know Alicea just put her in check, and tell mom that I can't believe she lets Cindy talk to me that way. Tell mom if she loves me to tell Cindy to stay out of my life. I don't even want Cindy around moms house anymore. I swear I'll snap soon, I can't take this childish games anymore. For the love of god keep Cindy out of my life, who in the fuck does she think she is!

I mailed the letter to Patti, call her and let her read it to you. Please help me on this one, I'm in a cage and I'm helpless right Now! Those matters my time harder, I'm suffering enough so tell Cindy to respect me or else. Okay!

Don't worry about David he's mine, just talk to Cindy and tell her she's not a Bernios. This is between me and David, I hope he dies thats how much I hate him right now. That little bitch can't mine his own business. I haven't wrote them in [redacted] months now they open the door again. I put David in check but I know its hopeless. David needs his asstickt and I'm the one who's going to do it! I'm not writing mom cause she lets that pig in the house and I'm not writing David anymore. July 4 1997 David is mine, he's going to be judge by me. I hope he makes the right choice, for all the pain he's cost me and you. I will make him cry like a baby!!!! God knows I did try the nice way, It doesn't work, so now its me and him and I will never lose. I hate that Bitch!

Firefighter Jeff ANDERSON, Paramedic Firefighter Joe PULVERMANCHER, and Paramedic Instructor Kim Krueger.

Police Officer KOZICZKOWSKI informed me, medical personnel informed him, they were dispatched to the location at 8:05 a.m. The Officer conducted his preliminary investigation and learned the deceased, was discovered in an upper bathroom in the bathtub, submerged in water. The deceased was discovered by his daughter, Alicia I. GRALEWICZ.

It was learned when the daughter discovered the deceased, she drained the water from the bathtub and medical personnel was summoned to the residence.

The Officer informed me, medical personnel had to remove the deceased from the bathtub into a bedroom, in an attempt resuscitate the victim. The attempts were met with negative results and the deceased was pronounced dead at 8:34 a.m., by a Base Doctor at Froedtert hospital, with a number of 012.

Police Officer KOZICZKOWSKI stated he secured the scene, notified Lieutenant SCHWERSE, at District #3, who in turn, notified Lieutenant ANEWENTER at Extension 7302. I was also informed Lieutenant SCHWERSE notified the Medical Examiner's Office, and Medical Investigator Daphene ALLEN, arrived at the scene to conduct an investigation.

At 9:55 a.m., I, Detective Stella PAYNE, observed the deceased in the upper northwest bedroom. The deceased was a White/Hispanic male, 83 years of age. He was lying on the blue carpeted floor, and his head was positioned in a northeast direction, and his feet were pointed in a southwest direction. I observed, his right arm was straight at his side, and his left arm was bent up, towards his head.

The deceased had a tube in his mouth, which was from the Paramedics resuscitation efforts. The deceased was wearing a dark blue tee shirt that had been cut down the middle, and the ends were at his side. The deceased was also wearing a pair of purple and maroon boxer shorts.

I observed no injuries to the victim's body. The upper unit consisted of two bedrooms, one which was to the front of the residence, and the second bedroom where the victim was located, to the northwest corner of the house.

The full bathroom was located opposite of the northwest bedroom. There was no physical evidence in the bathroom. It should also be noted, the bathroom and two bedrooms were checked for a suicide note, however, none was found.

Squad 382, Identification Technician Fred WOODS, was on the scene, and took a total of twenty photos at 10:00 a.m.

MILWAUKEE POLICE DEPARTMENT

REPORT

Work Location: Criminal Investigation Bureau
Saturday, September 4, 2004

In the matter of: SUDDEN DEATH OF JOSE L. BERRIOS,
W/M, DOB 3/16/64

To: Debra DAVIDOSKI
Captain of Police

This report is being dictated by Detective Steven CABALLERO, assigned to the Criminal Investigation Bureau, Late Shift.

On Saturday, September 4, 2004, at 4:33 a.m., squad 126, Detective Steven CABALLERO, was sent to investigate a DOE at 319 N. 67th Street. Upon my arrival, I was met by squad 336, Police Officer Nicholas RICE (payroll #89840). He states that he along with squad 283, Police Officer Andrew GEBHARDT, and squad 301, Sergeant Mark WAGNER, were sent at 4 a.m. to a suicide at 319 N. 67th Street. Upon their arrival, they were met by the wife of the victim who stated that her husband Jose L. BERRIOS, W/M, DOB 3/16/64, of 319 N. 67th Street, was found by her deceased from a hanging in the garage at that location. The Officers went to the garage and found the victim hanging from one of the rafters of the garage by a rope. Also on-scene was Milwaukee Fire Department Engine 35, who was manned by Captain David WALSH of the red shift. He related that they were called at 3:51 a.m. from a 911 call alerting them to the suicide. Upon Captain WALSH'S arrival to the scene, they did not attempt any lifesaving measures due to their trauma protocol. The victim was left in the position that he was found.

Medical Investigator Genevieve PENN was also present and pronounced the victim deceased at 4:20 a.m. She did not move the victim until proper documentation had taken place.

The scene of this incident is the two-car garage located at 319 N. 67th Street where the victim had lived with his wife and children. The garage was a two-stall garage with a vehicle on the northern parking slab. This vehicle was a Ford "Model T" vehicle. The other area within the garage was littered with tools and this is where the victim had conducted the incident. The victim was wearing a blue striped pair of briefs and a pair of white tube socks. There were no other articles of clothing on the victim. He had multiple tattoos on his upper body. The victim's feet were flat on the floor with a small amount of bend to his knees and I did find that the rope was taught. There was a small aluminum step ladder that had been near the victim, however, was laying on its side with the top of the ladder pointed in a southwesterly direction. This area was searched for any type of suicide note.

Milwaukee County Medical Examiner

INVESTIGATION REPORT

Decedent: Jose L. Barrios

SYNOPSIS

This 40-year-old male was found hanging in his garage tonight. He apparently has a life-long history of depression.

DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT

On 9-4-04 @ 0358 hours Milwaukee Fire Dispatcher #20 called this office to report a DOE in the garage at 319 N. 67th Street. She stated that Engine #35 responded to the 911 alarm, which came in a 0351 hours.

At the scene Officer Nicholas Rice explained that the decedent, Jose L. Berrios, was last seen at 0130 hours on 9-4-04 by his wife Cynthia. He was intoxicated at that time and she went to bed. Around 0350 hours she went to check on him and not finding him she began to search the house. She located him hanging in the garage and called 911. The responding Engine took no resuscitative actions.

Detective Caballero and I interviewed the wife, Cynthia. She stated her husband works as a landscaper for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. He maintains the grounds at St. Adalbert's Cemetery. In addition to that job he does side jobs landscaping. Cynthia explained that Jose did not come home from work last night, but at 2330 hours he called her and she advised him that they needed bread and milk. She put their children to bed and fell asleep. About 0130 hours she heard him come in the front door. She went downstairs to check on him and noted that he had removed all of his clothing except his undershorts and was crouching in the dining room. Jose told her, "That's ok baby, tonight I'll be flying high." She went back to bed and later was awakened by a dream. She went downstairs and was unable to find him and finally checked the garage.

Cynthia stated that Jose has been depressed all of his life. He had a very difficult childhood. The couple has been married for about two and a half years and he has frequently threatened suicide. Cynthia explained that Jose had been incarcerated for eight years for drug dealing and other charges. He finished probation about one year ago and slowly began meeting with old friends again. He began drinking. He would make suicidal threats and sometimes become violent when drinking. He did not want to see a psychiatrist for his depression. His father committed suicide about two years ago by drowning himself in a bathtub. Recently the wife's cousin committed suicide by gunshot to the head and Jose's comment at that time was; "Now there's a real man."

Cynthia explained that the couple bought a home about one year ago. She stated Jose did not want her to work. The couple has three small children. He was worried about money. He felt he was unable to be a good provider. There have been no past suicide attempts, but numerous threats. Cynthia does not know if Jose is using drugs. His alcohol use has increased. She has not noted any changes in his sleeping or eating habits.

Cynthia explained that Jose had a rope, tied in a hangman's noose, for some time. She stated that Jose normally kept this rope hanging from a nail on the wall in the garage.

The police checked their records and there were no past Emergency Detentions. A past arrest included reckless endangering with an explosive device. G. Penn

SCENE DESCRIPTION

I arrived at the scene at 0415 hours and was met by Officer Nicholas Rice & Andrew Gebhart. Lt. Jeff Wisch and Detective Caballero arrived later.

The decedent, Jose Barrios, was located in his garage, which was detached and in the rear of his house. He was hanging from a rafter in his garage. The rope was knotted twice around the wooden rafter. The rope, which was a thick twine, had been fashioned into a hangman's noose. The victim's feet were touching the garage floor and he was facing south. An overturned ladder was nearby his feet. The beam measured 103 inches from the top to the garage floor. The top of the beam to the beginning of the knot was 28 inches. Barrios was near his workbench and was 62 inches from the wall. Barrios was cold to the touch and in beginning rigor. Lividity was blanching and purplish to his lower legs.

search of the victim's body and did not find any fresh trauma to it. Squad 382, Identification Technician Sarah NYMOEN, did arrive on-scene and documented it with nine 35-mm photos. After the scene was properly documented, Patton Transfer did arrive on-scene, who was manned by Lonnie PEELER and Shawn STEPHENS. Genevieve PENN at this point cut the rope near the rafter where it was tied to. The victim was cut down at 5:50 a.m. and placed in the back of Patton Transfer by PEELER and STEPHENS. The conveyance was locked at 5:53 a.m. and the victim was conveyed to the Medical Examiner's Office.

The only other person that was on-scene that had knowledge of this incident was the victim's wife, who identified herself as Cynthia Margaret BERRIOS, W/F, DOB 12/6/67, of 319 N. 67th Street, with a phone number of #607-1728. She states that the victim had gotten off parole approximately two years ago and began drinking. She denies any knowledge of any type of illegal street drugs at this time. Regarding other background on the victim, she states that he had never seen any type of psychiatric doctor and was not being treated for any type of psychiatric problems. He had never been to the Milwaukee County Mental Health Complex for any type of treatment or emergency detentions. It should be noted that we did check and none were on file. Ms. BERRIOS stated that her husband did on many numerous occasions threaten to kill himself, however, she did not take any of them seriously. She did relate that on June 7, 2004 he was arrested due to domestic violence/disorderly conduct situation. No charges were brought against the victim. Ms. BERRIOS further states that her husband works at St. Adelbert's Cemetery and typically ends his work shift at 4 p.m. He does do landscaping as another source of income and thought that he had a job after work on this date. She usually excepts him home around dark, however, on today's date never showed up. The victim did call home at approximately 11:30 p.m. when Ms. BERRIOS informed him that they needed milk and bread. She relates that she heard the victim come home at approximately 1 a.m. and heard him "fumbling with the keys" at the front door. When she came downstairs she observed her husband in the dining room area wearing only his underwear and kneeling on the floor. At this time, she states that her husband stated, "That's okay baby tonight I'll be flying high". Ms. BERRIOS relates that she took this to mean that he was going to get high or drunk. She states that at approximately 4 a.m. she woke up and noticed that her husband was not in bed. She went to investigate and seeing the victim's truck in the driveway, searched the residence. When she was unable to find him there she immediately thought that he was possibly in the garage working on something there. When she went out to the garage she went and opened the overhead door and found the victim. It was at that point she relates that she screamed, went back into the residence and called 911. I did ask her about the rope that was used in this incident and she states that there was a thicker type rope with a noose already tied. This rope was hanging on the wall of the garage. She relates that she thought the victim used it when performing his landscaping duties and didn't think anything of it. She did relate that the victim appeared very intoxicated when she briefly talked to him and that he has been depressed recently because of money problems within the family. Ms. BERRIOS also related that he has been slowly drinking more since being off parole and losing the supervision of his parole agent.

That concluded Ms. BERRIOS' statement. At this point, she had nothing further to relate regarding this incident. Follow-up will be to monitor the autopsy of the victim.

1964-2004

On Saturday, September 4, 2004, José Borrios died. José was a worker on the grounds of the Catholic Cemeteries for about 15 years serving at various locations in different jobs.

He was a hard worker, a dedicated cemeterian, a servant of grieving families, a leader for his co-workers, a creative force as a landscaper and burial space finder a problem-solver and a conscientious supervisor. We thank José for his contributions and service over those years.

We will miss him deeply. So, we entrust our friend and colleague José to our gut and gentle God that he may find true comfort and peaceful rest.

Our prayers and sympathy are with his wife Cindy and their three sons, as well a the extended family.

investigate and seeing the victim's truck in the driveway searched the residence. When she was unable to find him there she immediately thought that he was possibly in the garage working on something there.) When she went out to the garage she went and (opened the overhead door) and found the victim. It was at that point she relates that she screamed, went back into the residence and called 911. I did ask her about the rope that was used in this incident and she states that there was a thicker type rope with a noose already tied. This rope was hanging on the wall of the garage. She relates that she thought the victim used it when performing his landscaping duties and didn't think anything of it. She did relate that the victim appeared very intoxicated when she briefly talked to him and that he has been depressed recently because of money problems within the family. Ms. BERRIOS also related that he has been slowly drinking more since being off parole and losing the supervision of his parole agent.

That concluded Ms. BERRIOS' statement. At this point, she had nothing further to relate regarding this incident. Follow-up will be to monitor the autopsy of the victim.

Respectfully Submitted,

SISTERS' MESSAGE OUT OF STATE

3/30/23, 5:49 PM

I agree repent! God knows our hearts, and knows when we truly have repentance.
Forgiveness that's a tough one...
I pray for you... especially during this holy season. Jesus died on that cross for everyone.
we can't pick and choose who will be saved.
By the way I saw your post and you mentioned me that I was present, I was living in Minnesota at the time. Your perception is your reality. But so we are clear I'm telling you, you have it wrong.
May God Bless you and heal your brokenness. Fill your heart with peace. I mean that with all sincerity.
Happy Easter Alicia

(pacemaker), and it was the reason she called her. Ms. MCCLINTOCK stated when Susan arrived at the house, they decided to have her take Ms. GRALEWICZ'S two boys, Anthony and David, to Susan's residence.

Ms. MCCLINTOCK stated Susan told her, David had told Susan, at approximately 7:00 a.m., he saw his Grandfather, Felipe coming up the stairs, and he followed his Grandfather, but his Grandfather told him to go back downstairs. This concluded Ms. MCCLINTOCK'S statement.

It should be noted, David BERRIOS, H/M, DOB: 04/18/91, was not present at the residence, and was not interviewed regarding this incident.

My Heavenly Realm out-of-body experience.

The Lord Jesus revealed the details of the day, which led to a spiritual awakening.

I could have gone insane because of these people downsizing my reality.

In my silence, I gained wisdom and guidance; this knowledge was not of the world's system.

Anchored to God, freed myself from despair.

To Whom It May Concern:

On September 3, 2004, I was at Bob E O's Restaurant and Bar. During the course of the evening I had occasion to meet and talk with Jose.

There seems to be an understanding that Jose was very drunk and talking suicidal. I would like to state some facts on his behalf.

I was at the bar that evening and Jose came in. He was sitting by himself across the bar and talking to my friend and I. He was invited to come over and join us. He did. We engaged in at least one hour and one half conversation with Jose. In that time, he told me of his work for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee and how proud he was of the work he had done for them.

Within the time that we spoke, I did not find Jose to be drunk or drinking a lot. In fact, my friend and I had three drinks while he was still on his first mug of beer. At one point, while buying a round, I asked if he cared for one. He declined, because he still had half of a glass.

As we spoke, Jose said that he would come over and take a look at my yard and give me some suggestions for landscaping. I told him that would be great and we would get together to set that up next time I saw him.

I soon left and went down the road to George Webb's. I remember the time I ordered to be 12:30 p. m., thinking that I would be home at 1:00a. m. with my food.

When I learned what happened Jose, I was shocked and could not believe this person that I had talked to was either drunk as people have stated or feeling so badly he would take his own life. He was very upbeat and looking to the future when I spoke to him that evening.

I would be available to talk to any concerned people about that evening. Please contact me.

Respectfully,

Mary V. Ehrmann

Final Goodbye

The tears are building in my eyes as I realize I will never see your presence or hear your voice again, from this day forward.

That love that you never betrayed, your support in my toughest days. You are the best Pop that will be remembered all day.

Thank you for giving my sons the love of a grandpa, which I never experienced in my youth. Seeing it in your way made me especially glad.

2000, Funeral

He advised me that a kind heart gets you places to accept the downfalls; it is a part of life to get back up and not give up the fight.
He made friends of all ages, regularly making them smile. He was a giving man; all had their fill with packed lunches shared in the hood. He treasured us for our unique ways; never did he stray.

#1 DAD, we all agree.

I am happy for what he instilled in me.
Throughout my entire life, this experience has remained strong.
He never gave up loving his children.

He left this earth loved, never having a foe, holding grudges Pop did not know.

Memories will be cherished for a lifetime as our Heavenly reunion builds my FAITH.

My daughter Alicia

She likes to work which makes me a proud dad that she stays in that working mind frame. She has two sons which are the happiness of my life because I love them very much. I don't wish to die until I see them as adults. I'm 80 years old. I'd like to have more life. I do request of God to care for them daily and to have them grow up without drugs and HARD working that everybody cares for them as I do. I wait for the day to see them as grown adults. I think a lot about them each day having to pass or die in the future, as I desire to live for them.May God bless them and provide for their future.

Dear Jose or should I call you, my Rambo.

Remember the Rambo picture you sent me from prison? I still have it. Ya know Jose, Your mom has told me how you can't stand your wife and that you always call her a fuck-n bitch. Well get rid of her like we all want! Your mom said that she's gained tons of weight and she makes you so sick that you left her on two different times and spent the last time with some girl. You stayed at your mom's on a saturday and your mom called me and told me to come over but we were afraid that Popie would find out. Well, your mom has a plan to do Dave's old room up for you cuz she wants you to move home. I told her then I can come over but I'll have to stuff myself to be big and fat so you'll at first think its your wife, then when I take off the disguise, you'll have your dream come true, you fantasy, me! I still am waiting for that ride on your bike. Oh and by the way, I'm sorry I caught you off gaurd at your mom's yhay one day after work. I was suppose to already be in side your mom's house to surprise you. She called me and told me that you need to get away from you know who, I hate to say her name, so you come to your mom's to work on the car that's why you keep it there. Well any ways I was said that you left but I know yopu had the bitch in the car, your mom told me what happened later that night. Also, I heard that you burned , slapped and through a beer at the bitch! I do see, you really hate her. Jose, I only wished you would have been with me that last Friday night I could have showed you such a good time. Remember when you gave me that shower. I know I told you that you didn't satisfy me, well we can work on that. I love to ressle with you. I heard that your mom went out of her way to make the bitch fell better about things, even took her upstairs to talk and she made a huge scen and you had to leave with her. What a bitch! I dream alot and tell your mom she says dreams do come true. I dream Jose of us having a little girl and dressing her up in Harley clothes. God I dream alot. Just like when I told that guy in the bar that I was your wife when I went out with Dave and all of them. I was happy that night. I heard Sue saw you and gave you a kiss and the bitch made a scen at Wood's house. What a shame for you Jose to have to live with that! The girls around here hate her cuz she thinks she's too good. It was nice not seeing her face around for those years! I love your mom and like I told Alicia, I'd do anything for her! She loves me too and told me that I'm more her daughter than Alicia or the bitch for sure. I try to do so much for your parents, I made curtains for your mom, she told me she showed them to you. I also cut poppies hair for him. You see Jose , we should be together like your mother wishes. You should listen to your mom like I tried to tell you at Oxford. She doesn't want to see you in misery. She told me Hulia called and you even told her your not happy. What's up Jose? I know your wondering why I even took the chance to send this to the Bitch's house but your mom told me you work at some friends place at night so I knew you'd get the mail during the day. Your mom wanted me to go down to your work to suprise you but couldn't remember where it was. She also told me about JT not liking the bitch for anything! Boy for him to [illegible]

told you in a letter before, she fucks her own cousin, Fernando saw her at George Webbs on Bluemound. Well, maybe she's jealous like your mom says cuz you do so much for your mom and your mom does get away with alot, she told me how you sort of made her apologize to the bitch and your mom said she didn't really have to thats the love you have for her as your mother. Thats really nice Jose and I'm glad you do things for your mom, fuck her! So really tell me the truth rumor has it your leaving her when you get your full time position at the cemetary, not till then? When is that summer time? Oh Jose, come stay by me. Jose, I have to be honest with you, I know girls in the strip seen and , well I told them your mine and anyways we share something! I heard something from a girl way over on the south side, I can't remember the place right now, but its huge, by the airport, she told me she knew a Jose that she wouldn't dare fuck but wouldn't tell me exactly why but that you had it out also with too many people she knew. Whats that about? Well, like I said-talk is had about you and one more thing, you fucked alot of people in the bars and I wonder if the story is true, did you really fuck Sue? Well, my Friend, my Love, I hold dear the poems you wrote me and await for that ride on your bike that you promised me and remember, I wait for you. Maybe when poppie is gone I will help your mom, she asked me and then you, her, and I can live together and maybe Felix cuz something was mentioned to that.Also, remember our night on the town, you were singing that night and you remember what happened the rest of the night! We will do it again. Call the next time from your mom's when your over night, or she said she'll call me. Your beautiful Jose! For now thats all I will say...

To Whom it May Concern,

I think it is important for anyone reading this to know that I have known Cindy McClintock Berrios since 1986.

I have always known her to be a little off-kilter and somewhat twisted in her ways of thinking. However, she never hurt anybody nor did she ever intend any harm to anyone. She wasn't quite sure of the shit off her back.

Up until my friend Cindy fooled her so lonely self and married a man we had both known a long time. He had just gotten out of jail and was planning to his long time girlfriend Patti. Anyway they had married shortly after Jake Berrios got for the first time in jail.

Cindy sent numerous sexually explicit letters to me even though she knew he was married.

Bottom line is Cindy mentally married Jake and things were just not normal she was stealing herself and trying to hide everyone else as Cindy and Jo had not talked to each other as much as they did before her marriage, it was too awkward for me. However, we did talk and every time Cindy was home in Salem we chose to at least now, facing the fact that she couldn't change him and Cindy would tell me I wish he would just kill himself and get out of our life. Just get it over with.

She is known now to more than a tad bit twisted and has hurt many more than. She's very cunning and mischievous. I believe she is different everyday because she must realize this all could have been prevented. She must be suffering as unfortunately I feel she should although her children SHOULD NOT have the pain. There is so much info it is hard to put it all into words. Feel free to call w/ any questions!

Subject: Berrios letter

Hello Joe,
Please forward the following to the court tomorrow....
Your Honor:
I would like to say that in the three years since my husband's death, Felix has threatened my life four times to me personally. He has threatened to tell m three young sons that I killed their father four times. He has tried to manipulate receipts and "prove" I owed him more money than I did. He has approached mutual friends to try to persuade me to pay him so my children don't become orphans. He has called my sons bastards three times. He lied to a court commissioner about a car my husband adnt their nephew traded and I bought back almost a year and a half after my husband's death. The last time he saw my sons was October 14, 2004. This is my oldest, his own godson's birthday. He said he only came to "make payment arrangements". He did not even realize it was his nephew's birthday that day. Prior to the restraining order, he called me once in May 2005 to tell me I should call him to allow him to see his nephews, but this was shortly after he said he needed to tell the boys the "truth" about their father's death.
The truth of the matter is that when Jose used Cocaine, he was very violent. He had a history of violence with other women and others that has been documented, however, his brother refused to come to terms with this, instead, trying to remember something Jose was not. He had forgotten that no one could tell Jose what to do or not to do...particularly when it came to women. He has tried to convince me and anyone else willing to listen that Jose hated me and was going to to kill me also that night. In drug or alcohol induced rages, Jose may well have said those things, but in reality he did not mean them. Reality is if Jose wanted to kill me, he would have easily. Reality is Jose hung himself, as sad as that is. We have three beautiful boys as a result of this tragic story. Prior to Jose using drugs again, we had a wonderful relationship based on love and they deserve the respect and memory of that love.
Their uncle Felix chooses instead to embrace some glamorized version of the reality of what happened. I fully understand that this is the result of grief and an inability to come to terms with his brother's death, but he needs to understand that he has crossed the line. He needs to embrace the fact that he is creating fear and torment to me and this trickles down to my boys. My oldest in particular is affected because he is old enough to remember a lot of this nonsense. He can't understand why his uncle can't come to his birthday party so he can tell him how much he misses his pop. He often talks about the love he had with his father and how his father said he loved me, his mother. He told our oldest, Joseph, that I was his queen and they were the princes. I don't understand why Felix would try to polute these boys' minds with hatred and lies so as to ease his own conscience and/or help his own grief. He fully knows what happened, but yet he tries to blame me for his brother's death and spews forth anger and hatred and venom at the detriment of his own nephews' well being. How do you punish someone for turning their back on children? How do you punish someone for inflicting more pain and anguish on a widow and her orphans?
I just hope the court can fully understand the amount of pain and grief Felix has forced upon us and prolonged our own healing during this extremely painful and difficult time. If he has issues to deal with, so be it. That is understandable. What is not understandable is the fact that he is taking it out on us, the most vulnerable and the worst affected by this tragedy.
He has sent pictures to my home that are inappropriate....letters that are aimed to emotionally harm us and intimidate us. I moved out of city so as to try to shelter my boys from this nonsense, but I have since received pictures of myself at my new home from Felix so as to be warned that he knows where I am. Enough already....he needs some psychological help and to leave us alone. He is unable to leave us alone obviously and I am looking for the court's fullest discretion in doing what is needed to protect us from this disturbed man.

I thank you for your time and only hope this letter can illustrate somewhat the degree of harassment and pain this man has caused us since my husband's suicide.

Sincerely,
Cynthia Berrios

I agree repent! God knows our hearts, and knows when we truly have repentance.
Forgiveness that's a tough one...
I pray for you... especially during this holy season. Jesus died on that cross for everyone.
we can't pick and choose who will be saved.
By the way I saw your post and you mentioned me that I was present, I was living in Minnesota at the time. Your perception is your reality. But so we are clear I'm telling you, you have it wrong.
May God Bless you and heal your brokenness. Fill your heart with peace. I mean that with all sincerity.
Happy Easter Alicia

(pacemaker), and it was the reason she called her. Ms. MCCLINTOCK stated when Susan arrived at the house, they decided to have her take Ms. GRALEWICZ'S two boys, Anthony and David, to Susan's residence.

Ms. MCCLINTOCK stated Susan told her, David had told Susan, at approximately 7:00 a.m., he saw his Grandfather, Felipe coming up the stairs, and he followed his Grandfather, but his Grandfather told him to go back downstairs. This concluded Ms. MCCLINTOCK'S statement.

It should be noted, David BERRIOS, H/M, DOB: 04/18/91, was not present at the residence, and was not interviewed regarding this incident.

Prove it in a trial.

World system – “Innocent till proven guilty.”

I do not have to answer My Reality; those days were in the past.

The corruption of our government is not worth the battle, as Truth Set ME FREE.

I preferred the all-knowing God, Alpha and Omega, Heavenly victory.

In 2025, after years of journaling, I abandoned the legal system in favor of faith in God. My silence gave me strength and guidance from above, making explanations for my past unnecessary. Facing government corruption felt futile, as truth brought me freedom.

I chose not to get entangled in defamation claims, trusting that only God witnessed everything. This book serves as evidence of my experiences and stands as my legacy. Justice came through faith without sight, and I encourage others to trust their instincts and seek guidance from God when something feels wrong.

My theory is based on a living experience, guided by our Heavenly God, who sees all, knows all. I will not get trapped by Defamation when it is I who has been deceived and abused by Malice, as enough was taken. Heaven's surveillance saw it unfold. I will not waste a penny in Court.

The conclusion is based on TRUTH.

AMEN

You will not find answers in this shadowy world, amidst a corrupt justice system. Despite my efforts, no one listened. I was provided CLARITY when speaking to Jesus.

This book marked the end of my 25-year struggle. My future is now rooted in God. Seeking joy does not mean I have forgotten it; a memory from the past, a chapter in a book I choose not to revisit.

Marching out of this darkness
I'll change the channel on the TV it is just the same old thing.
Every night another brother hung from the ceiling.
I can't believe what I'm seeing.
A mother crying on her knees at her daddy's grave.
A body bag full of lies.
They shoot down the evidence, no matter how hard she tries or how much she cries.
This is never-ending. It's time for me to face this.
Stand up for what is right as we can change the world.
No one dies. I've had enough of running this endless circle.
Wherever I go, their faces still haunt me.
I've had enough of this, raise your fists we won't lose again.
I know the truth.
I know that the woman will deny it. How can she feel sympathetic,she's made of lies.
But she can't win the war I feel inside.
Inside my head there is a war, it always rages on.
It's me against you. I know we will change the future and make this happen.

MY HOMEWORK

Heaven's Surveillance

LORD my God, I called you for help. And you healed me.

Everyone has sinned and fallen short of God's glorious standard

Romans 3:23

Perfection is not humanly possible – except for Jesus.

For all that is secret will eventually be brought into the open, and everything that is concealed will be brought to light and made known to all.

Luke 8:17

What is done “in the dark” will become known. Light heals, as Jesus is the Light, Healer, Redeemer, Savior, and King.

Get out of my life, you evil-minded people, for I intend to obey the commands of my God.
Psalm 119:115

From the pit to the palace, working for the Kingdom, I was loyal while they were destroyers. I cut toxic from my life to fulfill the calling of my destiny; my Lord Jesus provided, never looking back.

No weapons formed against me shall prevail; in my secret place, to protect my sanity.

I will not entertain the past; my isolation and rejection were my protection.

My resurrected Lord resurrected me. Death has no grip on me; I am joining my Father, pressing into the mark. God gave me an escape. I was never at fault.

This season is going to lead me to the next level.

No rush: I am taking this journey as I wait for the Lord's approval to proceed at His appointed time.

Guarding my spot and my promised anointing. Those plotting against me, God will condemn.

These wolves in sheep's clothing. Tried to stumble; instead, I climbed the ladder to paradise, my stairway to Heaven. I rebuked those against me.

God guides my footsteps in this journey.

Glory to Jesus; my past is left behind. footprints, Jesus is carrying me. In today's culture, they call good evil and evil good. When I surrendered all to God, that was when I had a transformation: mind, body, and soul.

The gift of salvation, I wish I had known sooner.

In my valleys, He interceded, placing me on the mountaintop. When others disown you, God will welcome you to paradise, even on earth.

I learned secular, worldly people keep God out of the equation rather than worshipping His Holy name.

Life is but a vapor in the wind. This universe will not last forever.

God is in control. He gives and takes away. His crucifixion on the cross paid the price for past, present, and future sins. Accepting the gift of salvation transforms your life for the better.

I could not survive the battles without him at my side, despite my despair and losses. His promises are mansions in Heaven, an everlasting eternity.

I would not gamble with your soul's destiny or be a non-believer as time draws near; it is best to repent.

Asking Jesus into your heart, which is when the blessings flow, is my testimony.

Put on the whole armor of God.

Do not react to every action that does not need a reaction. Be wise as a serpent. Harmless as a dove.

The Keys to Prosperity. My eyes are fixed on the prize.

Kill the dark energy, move in silence! With kindness, as the light dims the dark.

Thank you, God, of my ancestors, for granting us wisdom and revealing the king's dream as we requested.

Through Christ, we can confidently face challenges, assured that He is both our guide and constant companion.

Daniel 2:23

The Crucifixion of Jesus

None is righteous; our works are like filthy rags. It is by Grace that we have been saved, through the blood of Jesus Christ.

He, being tortured on the cross, set the captives free. On that cross, He quoted Forgive them, for they know not," these people caused His death."

Acts 2:23

"This man was handed over to you by God's deliberate plan and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross."

By His example, I must forgive as Jesus.

His forgiveness frees emotions in your soul.

1 Peter 2:23

"When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats.

He patiently endured suffering, trusting God to judge justly.

1 Timothy 2:23 advises avoiding pointless arguments, as they only lead to quarrels.

Ecclesiastes states:
"Everything is made beautiful in its time, and eternity is placed in man's heart, yet we cannot fully understand God's work from start to finish."

The pacemaker could have determined his time of death, but all reports, including the autopsy, relied on a witness statement suggesting suicide.
Their conclusions all matched; although no one else saw what I did, the person who found him.

When my brother passed away, I was not there or living in the same household, unlike with my father's passing, where I saw everything firsthand !

Given the strong relationship I share with my brother, I believe he would have contacted me if he had contemplated suicide, especially since it was not a subject that we ever discussed.

TAMPERED EVIDENCE

I noted:

I DID NOT HEAR running water in my last statement.

Ecclesiastes

To everything there is a season. and a time for every purpose under Heaven:

A time to be born and a time to die.

A time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted.

A time to kill and a time to heal.

A time to break down and a time to build up.

A time to weep and a time to laugh.

A time to mourn and a time to dance.

A time to cast away stones and a time to gather stones together.

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing.

A time to get and a time to lose.

A time to rend and a time to sew.

A time to keep and a time to cast away.

A time to keep silent and a time to speak.

A time to love and a time to hate.

A time of war and a time of peace.

Tomorrow is not promised.

Psalms
The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not be in want. He restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
God is present and preparing a table before my adversaries, anointing my head with oil so that it overflows. Throughout my life, I am assured that His goodness and mercy will accompany me, and I will reside in the house of the Lord forever.

I was born a smiler and will die one.

DESCRIPTION OF SCENE:
Single-family residence, 2-story, with 2 bedrooms in upper unit. Deceased was discovered in the upper bathroom in a bathtub full of water with his head submerged under the water. Physical evidence gathered: N/A. Photos taken: 20 photos by I.D. Tech Fred Woods at 10:00 AM.
MATTER OF REPORT — DETAILED INVESTIGATION:
Firefighter Jeff ANDERSON, Paramedic Firefighter Joe PULVERMANCHER, and Paramedic Instructor Kim KRUEGER responded.

Police Officer KOZICZKOWSKI informed Det. Payne that medical personnel were dispatched to the location at 8:05 a.m. Preliminary investigation revealed the deceased was discovered in an upper bathroom in the bathtub, submerged in water, by his daughter, Alicia I. GRALEWICZ.
(Error)
When the daughter discovered the deceased, she drained the water from the bathtub, and medical personnel were summoned. Medical personnel had to remove the deceased from the bathtub into a bedroom to resuscitate the victim. Attempts were met with negative results, and the deceased was pronounced dead at 8:34 a.m. by the Base Doctor at Froedtert Hospital.

At 9:55 a.m., Det. Stella PAYNE observed the deceased in the upper northwest bedroom lying on the blue carpeted floor, head positioned in a northeast direction, feet pointing southwest. His right arm was straight at his side, and his left arm was bent up towards his head. The deceased had a tube in his mouth from paramedic resuscitation efforts. He was wearing a dark blue T-shirt cut down the middle and purple/maroon boxer shorts. No external injuries were observed on the victim's body. Physical check of the bathroom and bedrooms yielded no suicide note.

STATEMENT INTERVIEW OF ALICIA I. GRALEWICZ (Daughter):
Ms. GRALEWICZ stated on Wednesday, 02/23/00 at approx. 8:00 a.m., she went upstairs to the upper bathroom to take a shower prior to a court appearance. The bathroom door was closed. She assumed her father, Felipe, was inside due to constipation issues. She knocked twice, got no response, sat on a bed across the hall for a few minutes, then returned and opened the door.

She observed her father in the tub, submerged under water, turned on his left side in a fetal position with both hands folded under the left side of his face. She pushed his right shoulder twice and called his name; receiving no response, she believed he was dead. She ran out to her brother's bedroom and yelled to his girlfriend, Cynthia MCCLINTOCK, 'Pop's in the tub and I think he's drowned!' She then ran downstairs to tell her mother, Rosa, while Ms. MCCLINTOCK went upstairs.

Ms. GRALEWICZ stated her father had heart trouble, a pacemaker, a defibrillator, hypertension, dizziness, and constipation. He was treated by Dr. L. Aponte. She stated her father had previously talked about not wanting to live anymore due to health issues, wanted his doctor to take his pacemaker out, and on several occasions placed his walking cane on a door frame and motioned with his finger as if cutting his throat. She stated she did not hear her father go upstairs or hear water running in the bathtub.

STATEMENT INTERVIEW OF CYNTHIA M. MCCLINTOCK (Daughter-In-Law / Girlfriend):
Ms. MCCLINTOCK (D.O.B. 12/06/67, residing at 319 N. 67th St.) stated she was staying at 311 N. Hawley Rd. with her boyfriend as they were moving. At approx. 8:00 a.m., she heard Ms. GRALEWICZ scream that 'Poppa' had drowned. She ran into the bathroom and saw 'Poppa' submerged in the tub, face toward the wall, hands folded on left face, skin blue/grey, no bubbles in water. *She told Rosa to let the water out of the tub and called 911.

Ms. MCCLINTOCK stated that at 6:38 a.m. she had gone to the bathroom after feeding her baby and Felipe was not in the bathroom. She returned to bed. Prior to the screaming, she did not hear water running. She last saw Felipe the night before (02/22/00) at 9:30 p.m. when he said 'Goodnight' and 'Take it easy.' She noted Felipe had expressed a desire to die multiple times, placing his cane over the door frame and motioning cutting his throat. After finding him, she called her sister Susan MCCLINTOCK (a nurse) to assist. Susan informed her that grandson David (age 8) stated he saw his grandfather going upstairs at approx. 7:00 a.m. and followed him, but was told to go back downstairs.

STATEMENT INTERVIEW OF ROSA J. BARRIOS (Wife):
Ms. BARRIOS stated at approx. 5:00 a.m., her husband Felipe woke her and asked for coffee, but then changed his mind and stayed in bed. At approx. 6:30 a.m., her grandson David told her 'Grandfather' had gone upstairs. At approx. 8:00 a.m., her daughter Alicia came downstairs screaming that Felipe had drowned. She ran upstairs, saw him in the tub full of water, and was told by Ms. MCCLINTOCK to drain the water. She confirmed Felipe's medical history (pacemaker, defibrillator, hypertension, dizziness).

MATTER OF REPORT — DETAILED INVESTIGATION:
On Saturday, September 4, 2004 at 4:33 a.m., Det. Steven CABALLERO (Squad 126) was dispatched to investigate a DOE at 319 N. 67th Street. Upon arrival, he met P.O. Nicholas RICE (Squad 336), P.O. Andrew GEBHARDT (Squad 283), and Sgt. Mark WAGNER (Squad 301), who had been dispatched at 4:00 a.m. regarding a suicide. Officers were met by the wife of the victim, Cynthia BERRIOS, who stated her husband was found deceased from a hanging in the garage. Officers inspected the garage and found the victim hanging from a rafter by a rope. MFD Engine 35 (Capt. David Walsh) arrived at 3:51 a.m. following a 911 call. Per trauma protocol, MFD attempted no lifesaving measures and left the victim in position. Medical Investigator Genevieve PENN pronounced the victim deceased at 4:20 a.m.

SCENE DESCRIPTION:
The scene was a detached 2-car garage at 319 N. 67th St. A Ford 'Model T' vehicle was parked on the northern slab. The other side was littered with tools where the incident occurred. The victim was clad only in blue striped briefs and white tube socks, with multiple tattoos on his upper body. The victim's feet were flat on the floor with a small bend to his knees, and the rope was taught. A small aluminum step ladder was lying on its side near the victim with the top pointed in a southwesterly direction. Beam height was 103 inches from top to floor; top of beam to knot was 28 inches. Victim was 62 inches from the wall. The rope was a thick twine fashioned into a hangman's noose, knotted twice around the wooden rafter. No suicide note was found.
At 5:50 a.m., Genevieve Penn cut the rope near the rafter, and the body was cut down and placed in Patton Transfer vehicle by Lonnie Peeler and Shawn Stephens. Conveyance was locked at 5:53 a.m. ID Tech Sarah Nymoen documented the scene with nine 35mm photos.

STATEMENT INTERVIEW OF CYNTHIA MARGARET BERRIOS (Wife):
Mrs. BERRIOS (D.O.B. 12/06/67) stated her husband was a landscaper for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee at St. Adalbert's Cemetery and performed side landscaping jobs. He typically finished work at 4:00 p.m. On 09/03/04, he did not come home right after work. At 11:30 p.m., Jose called home and Cynthia told him they needed bread and milk.

At approx. 1:00 a.m., she heard Jose come home fumbling with keys at the front door. She went downstairs and observed him in the dining room wearing only his underwear, crouching/kneeling on the floor. Jose stated, 'That's ok baby, tonight I'll be flying high.' *She interpreted this to mean he was going to get high or drunk. She went back to bed.

At approx. 4:00 a.m. (or 3:50 a.m.), she woke up from a dream and noticed Jose was not in bed. Seeing his truck in the driveway, she searched the residence and then went to the detached garage. She opened the overhead door, found him hanging, screamed, ran inside, and called 911 (at 3:51 a.m.).

BACKGROUND & HISTORY PROVIDED BY CYNTHIA:

• Cynthia stated Jose had been depressed all his life, had financial worries, and had frequently threatened suicide, though she did not take them seriously.

• She stated Jose had been incarcerated for 8 years for drug dealing, completed probation approx. 1-2 years ago, and slowly began drinking again.

• She mentioned on June 7, 2004, Jose was arrested for domestic violence / disorderly conduct, though no charges were brought.

• She stated Jose's father committed suicide about two years ago by drowning himself in a bathtub. (Note: Felipe Gomez-Berrios died in Feb 2000 in a bathtub).

• She stated her cousin recently committed suicide by gunshot to the head, and Jose commented: 'Now there's a real man.'

• Regarding the rope: Cynthia stated Jose had a thick rope tied into a hangman's noose hanging from a nail on the garage wall for some time, which she thought he used for landscaping duties.

• Records checked by police showed (no past Emergency Detentions or treatment at Milwaukee County Mental Health Complex.)

Glory to Jesus — my past is left behind.
Footprints, Jesus is carrying me.

In today's culture, they call good evil and evil good. But when I surrendered all to God, that was when I experienced transformation — mind, body, and soul.
My resurrected Lord resurrected me. Death has no grip on me; I am joining my Father, pressing into the mark. God gave me an escape. I was never at fault.
